Selected Poems

- Success is counted sweetest
- A wounded dear leaps highest
- The soul selects her own society
- I taste a liquor never brewed
- I bring an unaccustomed wine
- Who never lost, are unprepared
- I like to see it lap the miles
- Musicians wrestle everywhere
- There is no frigate like a book
- I had a guinea golden
- Before you thought of spring
- A route of evanescence
- A bird came down the walk
- A narrow fellow in the grass
- No brigadier throughout the year
- The rose did caper on her cheek
- One dignity delays for all
- I died for beauty, but was scarce
- Afraid? Of whom am I afraid?
- I was not death, for I stood up
- I felt a funeral in my brain
- I heard a fly buzz when I died
