Be on the safe side and give these notices and the program the once over.  SMEONE sent us a program of the "Provincial Inte scholastic and Senior Women Track and Field Meet Clarke Stadium, Edmonton, Alberta, Canada", held las summer. Some of us reared on Victorian ideals concernin sum proper exercises for women are in for a shock, as the ththetic meets for women spread and become more and mo ather popular. It's one of those popular movements which ari and develop in spite of what all the experts do and say. It poses a problem for the Interscholastic League: Shall we as an organization continue to iinaore athletics for riflrs, or get into the game and do our best to make it go right? Let's  LEAGUER.  $T_{\text {and }}^{\text {ENIS }}$ is an als, and the Leatideal sport for certain types of boys for the past thirty years. Many are the distinguished players who have come and risen to national fame (and a few to international fame) through Interscholastic League competitions. A large proportion of tennis players rank high scholastically. The Director of League Tennis, Dr. D. A. Penick, has had charge of this sport since the beginning. Tournament was conducted in 1922 in spite of heary downsours of rais, no hardsurfaced courts and two tornadoes strik. wastin just as the early matches had gotten under $\mathrm{E}_{\text {importance of emotional conditioning for exciting mo- }}^{\text {VERY extracurricular text should have chapter on the }}$
