Results of the preferential debate ballot, which determine the debate topic for the 1969-70 school year, will be announced.

Special Phone Just for Housing

The schools having qualified contestants and who desire assistance in securing housing may telephone the League for accommodation. BEGINNING APRIL 21, 1969, THE NUMBER TO CALL IS 476-8666.

Use of this telephone will help expedite the mailing of housing materials to your school, processing of these materials when returning to us, and confirmation of your reservations.

This telephone is NOT located in the League Office, and we shall appreciate it if you will use it for Housing only.

UIL Headquarters To Handle Housing

For the 59th Annual State Meet, May 1, 2, and 3, the University Interscholastic League, with the cooperation of the many hotels and motels, will again attempt to provide room reservations for the sponsors and official contestants who qualify to State Meet from the Regional Meets held on April 18 and 19.

Sponsors and contestants who qualify under Section 22 and 23 of the Spring Meet, Plan, pages 38 and 39 of the 1968-69 Constitution and Contest Rules, and who request housing through the League Office, will be assigned accommodations.

Registration of your contestants is still required, regardless of whether or not you secured your housing through the League Office, and a desk will be provided in the foyer of Gregory Gym on May 1 and 2 for this purpose. Also, track numbers may be picked up in the Gym on Thursday, May 1.

Parents and visitors should not request housing through League channels.

Housing Procedure

Upon receipt of the Official list of qualifying contestants from the Regional Director, specific instructions concerning housing will be mailed to the superintendent and/or principals of the school system that has qualified students coming to State Meet.

The forms in this mailing should be filled out and returned to the Housing Office the same day they are received.

Room reservations will be assigned as quickly as possible on a "first-come, first-served" basis. Telephone and telegraph requests will be processed likewise. Each request, however, cannot be confirmed until we receive your completed housing and eligibility form, signed by the Superintendent or his designated official.

We will make the reservations for you according to your request. If you request assistance from the League Office, please do not make duplicate reservations. You will be liable for the cost of your assigned accommodations whether or not you occupy the space.

Please notify the Housing Office on the Official Housing Form if you are able to make your own reservations and do need the services of the League Office.

Confirmations will be mailed to you by Monday, April 28. If you do not receive your confirmation by this date, please come by Gregory Gym when you arrive in Austin.

No Friday, May 2, Reservations Confirmed

All facilities in Austin are usually filled to capacity on Thursday. Therefore, no attempt is made to assign schools who request reservations BEGINNING on FRIDAY. League officials will assist the sponsors and contestants as the groups arrive at Gregory Gym on Friday.

The hotels and motor courts will hold all rooms that are vacated on Thursday for the Friday arrivals. These rooms do not become available until Friday afternoon, due to check-out time and necessary preparation of the rooms for incoming guests. We will assign you as soon as possible, but please remember that we cannot assign you as soon as you arrive, and, especially so, if you arrive before the noon hour.

Sponsor Responsibility

All unchaperoned students should come prepared to pay for their lodging at the hotel or motor court.

All unchaperoned students will be required to give the name and address of the school they represent to the League Office and the hotel or motel management before they are permitted to stay at the hotel or motel.

The League Office has the right to refuse lodging for any groups of students who do not appear to be adequately chaperoned. Sponsors are expected to stay with their students.

The managers of the hotels and motels will report any misconduct and damages incurred by the assigned groups to League officials. These reports will be forwarded to the schools involved.

If your group is assigned to lodging through the Housing Office of the League, the school will be held responsible for all charges incurred as a result of this assignment, whether or not the rooms are occupied, or as a result of misconduct or damages incurred.

Almost all of you are aware of today's motel and hotel room arrangements. We will appreciate it if you will not ask for impossible arrangements such as one coach in one room and one boy in one room. If such an arrangement is absolutely necessary, be prepared to pay the going rate for the customary two double beds to a room rate which so many of our modern travel facilities offer now. Single rooms are very scarce, only the older establishments have this type accommodation.

Administrators and sponsors are cautioned not to make duplicate reservations in Austin for the State Meet WITH THE EXPECTATION OF CANCELLING ONE AFTER (See HOUSING, page 2)

The Texan Talk Wins Top Newspaper Award

The Texan Talk newspaper published at Sam Houston High School of Arlington was named the Best Secondary School Newspaper in Texas at the Interscholastic League Press Conference Awards Banquet, March 22 in Austin.

Edited by JoLynn McCreary, the Texan Talk won judges acclaim for all issues. Originality in writing, good leads and effective makeup added to the effectiveness of the publication.

Miss Lina Davis is the advisor of the paper. She is in her second year of teaching. "A great paper like this can only come when you have an excellent advisor, and energetic and talented editor, a dedicated staff, and a school that places emphasis on quality," said Max R. Haddick, ILPC Director.

TEXAS FINEST JOURNALISM TEACHER—Mr. C. W. Dawson, sponsor of The Bearfacts newspaper of Gladewater High School, was named Texas Finest Journalism Teacher at the Interscholastic League Press Conference Awards Banquet in Austin, March 22. Gladewater school administrators, former Bearfacts Editors and staff members, and well-wishers from all over Texas flocked to the banquet to honor Dawson. "His newspaper has set a standard of excellence for years," said Rex Jobe, Assistant ILPC Director. "Year after year he has produced outstanding papers and started many of his students on successful careers in journalism."

Regional Runners-up May Apply For Awards

As announced in the October LEAGUER, the board of the Texas Interscholastic League Foundation is now permitting the regional runners-up to apply for the scholarships heretofore available only to those students who were State Meet competitors.

This decision means that second-place winners in regional speech events and third-place competitors in most other League events will be eligible to send in scholarship applications if they wish to do so. The board's decision was based upon the fact that, many times, the runners-up have lost by the thinnest of margins.

Also, The Houston Endowment scholarships have recently been made available to One-Act Play contestants. These awards are, however, still reserved for contestants in Conferences AAA, AA, A and B.

Each administrator who has a winning or runner-up contestant in the literary and academic events in the literary and academic events should make sure that his contestant should make sure that his contestants receive applications for these scholarships if they need them.

Ignorance of Amateur Rule Can Cause Disqualification

During the next month, school administrators and coaches should meet with all prospective athletes and explain fully the provisions of the League's Amateur Rule, Article VIII, Section 8. When the possibilities of violating the rule are clearly understood, students are less likely to forfeit their eligibility through actions which they do not realize are contrary to the rule. In fact, explaining the rule thoroughly might prevent some school from being disqualified from receiving honors it has otherwise earned.

Any pupil who receives cash or valuable consideration for teaching, officiating or participating in any athletic sport or game is in violation of the rule. Having someone else accept such cash or valuable consideration for the player is an evasion and should be interpreted as if the boy himself had received these items. Further, the student may not allow his name to be used to promote the sale of any product, plan or service.

Neither may a player compete on an athletic team WITH a paid player. He may play AGAINST a paid player, but being on the SAME TEAM with a paid player is violating the Amateur Rule.

Golf Balls

Accepting golf balls, bags or clubs would, for instance, be a violation of this rule, as would playing on a golf team with another player who was being paid.

These activities are considered athletic sports or games: baseball, basketball, bowling, boxing, football, golf, rodeo, softball, swimming or diving, tennis, track and field, weight lifting and wrestling.

A pupil adjudged by an appropriate committee to be in violation of this rule is ineligible for one year from the time of the violation. Note that this rule does not apply to pupils who were less than 15 years of age at the time payment for athletic services was made.

Rodeo

Violation of the Amateur Rule does not result from participating in a rodeo event but from accepting cash or valuable consideration. In other words, a boy or girl may enter a rodeo contest, as an individual, and may win the event without violating the rule.

If the pupil accepts cash or valuable consideration, or is on a team with a person who is paid, he is in violation of this rule.

Letter of Intent

Under the provisions of the Amateur Rule, the signing of a letter of intent for athletic ability is a violation. However, an athlete may sign the pre-enrollment application without violating the rule and forfeiting his eligibility.

Summer Baseball

Under the following conditions, a boy may take part in summer baseball without violating the League's Amateur Rule:

(1) He must not play on the same team with any paid player or with any player who receives valuable consideration. He may play AGAINST other teams which may have paid players. Students who hold athletic scholarships are not considered "paid players" in summer baseball UNLESS they are receiving cash or valuable consideration for participating in that particular game.

(2) He cannot accept any expense for travel, meals or lodging. Any expense money must be handled by the team manager, as a high school each would handle funds; the boy must never receive any cash or transportation tickets.

(3) Money that accrues from gate receipts or from any other source cannot be distributed among the players on a team. If a high school boy played on this team and if the players received any portion of the profits, then the boy would become ineligible as he has played on a team with PAID players.

(4) Taking up a collection at a game, when the player has hit a home run or accomplished any other outstanding feat, will make the player accepting such money a

State Meet Parking Must Be Regulated

To park and register at League State Meet Headquarters, you should:

Exit from Expressway 35 on 19th Street. Go west on 19th to Speedway. Turn north on Speedway to the first campus police booth, where the campus officer will direct you where to park.

Please note that NO BUSES are permitted on campus.

Parking is permitted ONLY for the time needed for registration. After you have registered, your car must be moved to another area.

The campus will be extremely crowded. Visiting delegates are urged to cooperate with their instructions.

Responsible Chaperones Required by Hotels, Motels

Managers of hotels and motels will require that each delegation of students shall be accompanied by a coach, manager, sponsor or other adult chaperone. Supervision often prevents many problems from arising.

No student or group of students will be permitted to register unless accompanied by an adult chaperone or chaperones.

Any misconduct or damage to hotel or motel property will be reported to the League Office and such reports may be referred to the school whose contestants are responsible.

Thanks to Member Schools

It would not be appropriate to close out the school year without a note of thanks to the thousands of school administrators, coaches, directors and citizens who have made this another great year for the League educational competitive program.

It would not be possible to operate a venture of the scope of the University Interscholastic League program without the many hours given voluntarily to further its objectives by those sponsors, teachers and schoolmen who have assisted in their many capacities in every school and county in Texas.

Our thanks is also extended to those in various communications media for their many contributions to the League's program. Without the help of newspapers, radio and television stations, our program could not have achieved its present status in the state. The League is grateful to every one who has contributed, by written and spoken publicity and by reporting and interpretation, to the success of the League program. We would like to say "Thank you" with all our heart.

Congratulations, "Blue Chippers"

During the next six weeks, thousands of exceptionally gifted boys and girls will be entering the academic, journalistic and athletic competitions, all hoping to progress from district, through regional, to State Meet.

It is a great privilege, an opportunity participated in by one out of every two high school students in Texas, to enter voluntarily some League activity. It should be remembered that these students have to meet the same academic requirements for graduation as all other students and that they make many additional sacrifices to compete in the League contests. America has been made great by the efforts of people who have done more than was required of them in order to succeed. The capitalistic philosophy of this nation, is based upon rewarding individuals for extra efforts. Nothing justifies this philosophy more than League Educational competition.

We salute these young men and women, who are the "blue chips" of the academic high school students. These boys and girls have shown that they will put forth every effort to succeed in life. These future citizens will continue to make this country the great nation it is. We believe that every community should honor these "blue chip" academic and athletic winners, as they deserve their congratulations for their fine achievements.

Why Do Schools Provide Interscholastic Programs?

Interscholastic activities have always been somewhat of an issue among educators. Although there is now general agreement that when properly planned, administered, and supervised, interschool activities can have positive educational values, there are still some who are of the opinion that they interfere more with the attainment of educational objectives than they contribute toward the achievement of such objectives.

It is true that interschool activities were not initiated in the beginning by educators for educational purposes. They were offered by the schools only after, in opinion of a majority of educators, it became evident that outside organizations would provide activity programs for youth if the schools did not do so. It was the ultimate decision of the schools that it would be better for the school to sponsor programs under proper guidance than to have them sponsored by nonschool organizations attempting to sponsor them. School sponsored programs are done in the best interest of the students. Such promotions are often more for the benefit of the sponsor than for the high school student.

After a number of years of experience, all our schools have developed programs that are accepted as being an integral phase of secondary school education. It was necessary in the beginning to adopt controls to prevent abuses. After abuses were reduced in this manner, the concept changed from that of controls to one of setting standards to guide these programs.

Occasionally questions were raised concerning the advisability of district and state interscholastic events. This is a legitimate question and deserves an answer. Unless these events contribute toward the objective of the school, they have no place in a school program. However, this contribution may be indirect. If in our present era, schools did not provide interscholastic activities for high school students, there is no question but what some nonschool organizations would. This is evident by the number that propose to do so, and the rules adopted by the schools which are necessary to control these promotions. If the schools did not have district and state events, there would be more organizations attempting to sponsor them. School sponsored programs are directed and administered by individuals trained for these responsibilities. There is a general lack of such training of individuals who direct nonschool promoted activities. Hence, although it may be the lesser of two evils, school sponsored, attractive events for high school age youth are without doubt more important forces in the lives of these young individuals than would be programs sponsored because of some special interest of a nonschool organization. Your suggestions for any special type ensemble for which there is a body of literature will be greatly appreciated. There are some segments of the State Solo-Ensemble contest that we can use for experimental purposes. Therefore, any suggestions or new ideas that you might have toward developing such music groups are welcome.

With your cooperation on each item of the aforementioned, we believe that this will be a fine State Meet, and we wish each of you a safe journey and success in the event in which you will participate.

High School Press

A Missing Person

By REX V. JOBE

The convention is now history. Over 2,000 sponsors and high school journalists came by the busloads to Austin for the largest state-wide high school press conference in the nation. We had speakers from all over the country fly into Austin to share their knowledge with the students of Texas.

They came from points reaching as far as Maryland, but the most important speaker of them all was missing. The missing person is Dr. Max Haddick, director of the conference. He suffered a heart attack two weeks before the convention. At the present time he has returned to his home and he is doing fine. We expect to see him back in the office at least part-time by September and hopefully full-time by convention time next year.

New Friend

I might mention that he has a new friend to keep him occupied at home. His new friend is a beagle. This makes his second. I understand he sits in the sun every day and they keep him company.

He was missed at the convention but we functioned as best we could. All the sponsors were extremely responsive to all requests that were made and I would like to thank them for the efforts that they made.

ILPC Officers

Another big factor in the well being of the Convention was the ILPC officers. Billy Goodman, Mike Shearn, and Bonnie Cox, the president, vice-president and secretary, all responded in champion style when the pressure was on to get the job done.

The 1968-69 officers placed two amendments to the constitution before the voting delegates during the election of officers. The first concerned the nomination procedure for ILPC officers.

New Amendment

The amendment, which was passed, reads, "nomination (for ILPC officers) must be submitted to the ILPC office in Austin, IN WRITING by midnight Thursday prior to the convention."

The old clause in the constitution reads: "nominations must be submitted in writing to the ILPC Secretary by 9 a.m. of the final day of the convention."

The ILPC office will interpret this rule as follows: Any nomination that is received in the ILPC office with a postmark no later than midnight Thursday prior to the convention will be accepted as a qualified candidate.

The idea for the amendment is that many candidates do not plan their candidacy so that it can be run successfully. The officers and the ILPC office hope this rule will encourage prospective candidates to plan their candidacy before they come to Austin.

Second Amendment

The second amendment was to limit the number of voting delegates to the convention to a single student from a member school. This amendment failed.

Fall Conference on Drugs

The University of Texas at Austin School of Communication, National Institute of Mental Health, and the University Interscholastic League Department of Journalism are now working on plans for a press conference concerning the scholastic journalist and drug abuse.

Three Conferences

It will be one of three pilot conferences held throughout the nation. The other two conferences will be at Kansas State University and Syracuse University.

Plans at the present time look for the conference to be held late in November, probably the weekend before Thanksgiving. All meetings will be held on the University campus.

The purpose of the conference will be to relate to the student journalist different methods that are being used to communicate to the student society about drugs. The conference will not be one where experts give speeches to the delegates and talk way above their heads.

The conference will be planned with the purpose of telling it to the student just exactly like it is. Groups will be small enough so the student will be participating at all times.

100 Schools

One hundred schools from all over the state will be randomly picked and asked to participate in the conference. We are sorry we will have to limit the number of delegations but we do not have the funds to cover expenses for more than 100 schools.

As far as the expense, schools will be given a fee to cover part of their expenses for the convention. The amount each school receives will be based on the distance to be traveled.

More information will be provided in the fall and the schools should be receiving information by late September.

Ideas?

If you have any thoughts or ideas concerning this conference please do not hesitate to take a minute and write it down on a piece of paper and send it to the League office. I am really excited about the conference and open to suggestions from one and all.

Music Matters

Debbie's Answer

By NELSON G. PATRICK

Dear Debbie:

Sweetheart, your question is quite shrewd for a seventh grader. "What is involved in a music education? Please tell me all you can about it."

First, let's try to partially define education, and then to music education. The thought came to me that real education is best described as a happening, an exciting happening, a happening involving many people and a student, the student who is right in the center of things.

While walking across the campus, I was reminded of your request as I observed several groups discussing various topics of interest to them. Some students were discussing new research, new discoveries that will in the future revolutionize our lives, others were discussing social issues while others were listening to a rock-n-roll group. In another group, one student, standing on a box, was surrounded by probably 200 people and haranguing with them, and with practically every statement he had to make, there were ten questions or boo's, expressing disagreement.

A Debate

On the steps of another building, I found one of our eminent philosophy professors and two graduate students holding a debate on the ways of man before a group of six or seven hundred students. On arriving at the coffee shop, sometimes referred to as the "hippie-hole," I found several hundred more rather peculiarly dressed students in groups of six to ten discussing the same issues, social problems, art, philosophy, theatre, music as those in the outside groups. At the table next to me, the group was discussing the merits of Baroque music vs. music of today. Their professors would have been amazed at the accuracy and depth of the spirited arguments.

All these scenes reminded me of the great universities of the Tenth through the Twelfth Centuries that produced so many great men. Within each group there was a student setting forth his knowledge, thoughts and convictions of vital issues of the day and having them challenged by his fellow students. Around each group were students interested in the same subjects with vastly different ideas and concepts concerning the subject, each one eager to test his conclusions with the group.

Techniques of Music

Passing through the music buildings, many more happenings were taking place. In one classroom, the students and professor were discussing the basic techniques of writing music; in another, they were studying the music of ancient Greece, and next to them was a jazz ensemble rehearsing the latest in musical idioms, creating sounds that Pythagoras never dreamed existed. In the classes, I recognized some of the same students that I had seen in the discussion groups on the campus. They were burrowing deeper and deeper into the great music of our past to further their fund of knowledge in order to discuss more intelligently their theses of the previous hour or to listen with understanding to the music of great men.

Exciting

You see, Debbie, music education is a great, exciting happening: a series of happenings: I used the word "happening" because it is so indicative of what is taking place when one becomes educated in music. In the process of a music education, you study of happenings of our past from which came great music expressing feelings, ideas, emotions of people. You also study musical happenings today: of our music, how our generation feels and expresses its feelings toward our way of life. The members of bands, orchestras, choirs, presenting concerts, or the recitals of students and faculty, the leaders of each of these, in turn, are willing to place their ideas, interpretations, and concepts of what he thinks the music should be before the other teachers and students for their consideration and criticisms.

You, the Student

The most important happening, though, is that which takes place in you, the student. At first, you do not realize that something is happening to you; the change is gradual. After participating in these many activities, trying your ideas out on others, modifying your thinking as you are bombarded with questions and explanations. You soon recognize that you, too, have taken on an identity, a personify with your own personal concepts of what is a musician. You realize that you now like and understand music which before you were unaware of its existence.

In other words, you, for the first time, come to the realization that music education is more than lessons, more than the classroom, more than teachers; it is even more than passing a few examinations. It is a happening, something that takes place within you, around you; something that becomes a part of you as you interact to your society. It is a very exciting happening that can be understood only by those who become a part of the happening.

Music Theory Notes

Final Check List For All Contestants

By BEN BRANCH

Before getting to the final checklist, it would probably be wise to correct an error in last month's column. Speaking of the new Music Theory Handbook, it stated that, "it would be $1.25 well invested, if you should see fit to order one." While it is probably worth that much or more, the price is only 25¢ — a quarter of a dollar, and not a dollar and a quarter.

Here is a final list of the things the theory contestants will be expected to do this year:

1. Identify at sight and/or write down any note in the treble, alto, tenor, or bass clefs by letter name and octave segment.
2. Use acceptable notational practices when writing down musical examples of any kind.
3. Classify meter signatures correctly write any note whose value and meter signature are given.
4. Know key signatures.
5. Be able to write and to identify —visually or by ear—major scales, the three kinds of minor scales, whole-tone scales, and four modes: Dorian, Phrygian, Lydian, and Mixolydian.
- Note: Perfect pitch will not be quired. If you can classify a scale or mode correctly by ear (for instance, you might know the scale you heard was melodic minor without having the faintest idea what note it started on), and if you can recognize and construct them when the notes are written down, that is all that is required. In fact, there may be times when the written key and the played key do not agree, just to make it more interesting for those who DO have perfect pitch. This general rule applies throughout the contest.
6. Be able to write and to identify —visually or by ear—any interval up to and including the octave. The listening part will include both melodic and harmonic intervals.

7. Be able to identify visually or by ear any triad as major, minor, diminished, or augmented. Some of the triads will be presented in inversions, but you will not indicate the inversion on your answer.
 8. Be able to identify visually or by ear any seventh chord in root position as being dominant, minor, half diminished, diminished, or major.
 9. Do a functional (Roman numeral) harmonic analysis of a simple chorale-like example in four-part harmony, giving chord numerals and inversions.
 10. Take a short piece of melodic dictation with the key signature, meter signature, and barlines being furnished.
 11. Add one, two, or three voices to a given melody, setting it in any suitable manner.
- The contest will be hard and demanding; it is supposed to be. The ratings will be based on a grading scale which will probably yield more V's than I's, with things stretched pretty evenly between, and this is as it should be at a State Contest. A few will get glory and medals, some will get scars, and most will just get experience.
- However things work out in the end for you and yours, I think it will be a good experience, a memorable occasion, and most important of all, a force for educational growth for all of us.
- See you at the contest!

Educational Theatre

20 Plays in 2½ Days

By ROY M. BROWN
State Drama Director

Recently one of my colleagues remarked that he was going to New York over the Easter vacation. Naturally the reason for the trip was to see plays. He plans to see five plays over a two-and-one-half day period.

As New York is the mecca of professional theatre, Austin will be the mecca of Texas secondary school theatre on May 1, 2, and 3. Need I say more? The State One-Act Play Contest will be held on the campus of The University of Texas at Austin in Hogg Auditorium beginning Thursday evening, May 1.

Rather than five plays, we offer twenty plays in a two-and-one-half day period. The twenty plays represents some of the finest secondary school theatre programs in the state. No matter whether or not you can afford a trip to New York, we invite you to the State One-Act Play Contest. A trip to Austin on May 1-3 will provide you with an opportunity to view the tops in Texas secondary school theatre.

Complaints

I don't know whether I have been at this desk so long that I don't recognize complaints anymore, or if there are just fewer complaints concerning the one-act play contest. I hope the latter is true and that it is because we have one of the finest organizations in the world. I do know for sure that in the past two years, most of the complaint letters received in this office have been legitimate and well-stated. In almost every case the person voicing the complaint did not have self or school in mind, but was considering the overall secondary school theatre program and the one-act play contest. To me, this is the mark of a professional teacher/director. Thank goodness for those teachers who put students and the educational value of an activity before self and school. Complaint letters usually mean more work for me, and I can assure you that I don't need more work! However, we must constantly strive to improve secondary school educational theatre. The one-act play contest is an important part of our Texas theatre program. I need your help and your ideas to improve this activity. Working to improve the one-act play contest is the type of work I enjoy. . . . Let me hear your complaints!

Congratulations

Dallas, and particularly Warren Travis White High School, are lucky to have two talented people such as Beverly Pichon and Jean Patterson running their drama program. Beverly is the drama director, and Jean is the stagecraft teacher. Last year White High School had one drama class with 16 students. This year they have three drama classes with an average of 21 students per class, and a formal stagecraft class. This is growth with a capital 'G'!

Arts and Humanities Money

Do you remember all the 'crowing' that yours truly and Don Irwin of TEA did concerning the money that was available under Section 12 of the Arts and Humanities Act? Do you remember that this year the money was set aside exclusively for the drama program? To those of you who did not go to the trouble to apply, read the following: . . . Just received word from the Texas Education Agency and Don Irwin that the following schools and school districts have received money to be used in their drama program from funds made available under Section 12 of the Arts and Humanities Act: Alice, Bastrop, Canyon, Galveston, Goose Creek, Huntsville, Laredo, Meadow, San Saba, Schulenburg, San Antonio Southwest, Waller, and Ysleta.

Personal Note

My friend, colleague, travel partner, office neighbor, and a guy that I dearly love to argue with, Dr. Max Haddick, our State Journalism Director, had a serious heart attack on March 7. Max is recovering smoothly, but will be out of circulation for quite sometime. While he is out, I am pleased to report that the Drama Department has done a superb job of taking over the work of the entire Journalism Department. It takes us an additional 30 minutes per day to do the work. Get well soon Max!

It has been a good year. . . . Thanks to one and all for the countless hours devoted toward the promotion and improvement of secondary educational theatre. Have a good summer and God bless.

Spelling Lists To Be Sold All Summer

A supply of the 1968-69 spelling lists will be available all summer this year.
With the spelling competition now progressing to the State Meet, many schools have expressed an interest in training their spelling competitors during the summer.
The lists, price at $1.10 each, $75 a dozen, or $5 a hundred, may be ordered from the League Publications department by order blank or by letter. Write the Publications Department, Box 8028, University Station, Austin 78712.

State Track Meet Sets Shoe Limits

Only track shoes with short spikes or running shoes will be allowed on runways to the broadjump, the pole vault, and the high jump at the State Track Meet.

Postscripts on Athletics

An Athletic Philosophy

By BAILEY M. MARSHALL

Very few schools delineate the objectives of their athletic program. Most schools require that objectives be outlined for the various subjects and subject areas. A considerable amount of time and thought go into the outlining of the objectives for these subjects.

It can be argued that little is gained for a list of objectives.

I agree that there is little gained when a list of objectives is handed a teacher or a department and they are told that they are to meet these objectives. However, if there is involvement of school personnel, board members and lay citizens in the development of these objectives, much can be gained. It creates an awareness of the purposes of athletics, and consequently "heads off" many problems that can and do arise.

An Accomplishment

Petersburg Public School has been one school that has accomplished something in this area. The following is the "Philosophy and Principle of the Petersburg Program." They are to be commended.

Philosophy and Principles Petersburg Public School Athletic Program

1. Athletics are an integral part of educational program. School stresses the sport that is in season as to priorities and attention.

Students First

2. Participants are students first and athletes secondly.
3. Citizenship and sportsmanship are stressed.
4. Hard work and sacrifice are taught to be prerequisites of success.
5. Discipline—both following instructions from a leader and self discipline are taught.

Upgrading

6. Moral and spiritual training—the teaching of upgrading one's life in all areas and to think positively
7. Mental toughness is stressed—especially in this needed for today's soft youth where hard work is not usually common to them.

A Good Mind

8. Physical fitness—a good mind is no better than the body that carries it. America needs to stay fit.

9. Team work and unselfishness are stressed.
10. Clean habits are sought to be formed.

Identity

11. Identifying with something is necessary to finding one's own identity and learning about what is inside one's self.

12. Coaches are teachers first and coaches secondly. Their status will be like any other staff member in that they need to answer only to the administration under the school's regular governing body, the board of education. Coaches are not to be put in a position of feeling they are governed by outside groups or booster clubs. They should be evaluated in all phases of their work and not by how many games that are won and lost only.

Friendships

13. Lasting friendships and acquaintances are made not only from your school but among people from other schools. Competition should be hard, but visiting schools should be treated as guests and good relations between schools should be fostered at every opportunity.
14. It is recognized that athletics can do much for community spirit and cohesion. However, the game is for the students; and the welfare of the participants should be the prime consideration embodied in the school's philosophy.

Participation

15. More importance is placed on participation than on winning and losing below the varsity level, more especially in junior high.
16. Athletics in our school will be under the rules and within the framework of the Texas University Interscholastic League.
17. Respect for officials and authority are to be taught.

Canyon, Stratford, Lamesa Klondike Waco Midway Win Girls' Cage Titles

Canyon, Waco Midway, Stratford, and Lamesa Klondike won the state basketball championships in their conferences at the 19th Girls' State Basketball Tournament in Austin on March 13, 14, 15.

The 1969 tournament saw 5 teams return from the 1968 tournament. The Class B champion, Lamesa Klondike, saw action last year as it was defeated in the final game of the 1968 tournament by High Island. Rivercrest (Talco-Bogata) returned for the Conference AA matches.

The Class AA runner-up, Spearman, was the AA consolation winner of the 1968 tournament. Carthage was the sole AAA team to return to the state tournament.

Following is a game-by-game account of the tournament.

High Island 57, Trent 49

Susan Smith scored 26 points and Molly Sullivan tallied 19 to lead High Island to an opening round victory over Trent, 57-49.

The score was tied three times as there was only a point difference in the score at the end of the first quarter. High Island opened their big guns in the second quarter and outscored Trent 19-7.

Cresta Sipe was the top scorer for Trent with 22 points.

Klondike (Lamesa) 50, Deport 45

Klondike (Lamesa) trailed Deport 29-27 at the half but pulled out in the third quarter to win their opening round game 50-45.

Marguerite Minter was the top scorer for Klondike as she pumped in 30 points. The big quarter for the Lamesa team was the third. They outscored Deport 14-5 and after that new looked back.

Yvonne Wood was the high point player for Deport as she tallied 17 points. Marilyn Glover and Pat Epps completed Deports scoring with 15 and 13 points respectively.

Deweyville 47, Fannindel (Ladonia) 37

Deweyville eased pass Fannindel

47-37 in the semi-final round of the Class A basketball championship.

It took Deweyville three quarters to get the ball rolling, but when the Pirates got the high-scoring duo of Judy Storms and Charlotte Bickham working it was too much for Fannindel.

Before the Pirates had things going their way in the fourth quarter the lead changed hands six times and the score was tied four times. Miss Storm edged Miss Bickham for scoring honors by one point as they got 23 and 22 points respectively.

Stratford 54, Lexington 50

The Lexington-Stratford game produced a scoring duel between Kathy Allen of Stratford and Vivian Roberson of Lexington.

Miss Allen lead her team with 35 points as they went on to win the game. Miss Roberson was just a point behind as they also fell shy in the final total.

The game was tight for the first three quarters with the lead changing hands seven times and the score knotted on six occasions. Miss Allen dropped in a pair of free throws with 7:16 left to put Stratford out in front for good.

Midway (Waco) 59, Calallen (Corpus Christi) 53

Former Class B champion Midway (Waco) led by the Trio of Sharron McKethan, Jane McKethan and Rene Wilson won the opening game of the Class AA basketball championship over Calallen (Corpus Christi) 59-53.

Miss Wilson hit 23 points, Jane McKethan 21 and Sharron McKethan 15 to account for all the Midway scoring, but even as impressive was the way this trio played defense while the Calallen guards tried to get the ball to the forwards. Callalen, which never led, got 36 points from Debby Lawrence and 12 from Sandra Hardin.

Spearman 39, Rivercrest (Talco-Bogata) 31

Rivercrest didn't get on the scoreboard until there was 2:09 left in the first quarter and at the end of the first quarter Spearman held a 9-4 lead.

However, a cold third period when Rivercrest outscored Spearman 10-3 was almost enough to turn the tide, but at the end of the third quarter Spearman held a tight 29-26 lead. Marcia Shieldknight provided nearly all the firepower for Spearman, totaling 10 field goals and 11 foul shots.

When the count reached 36-31 with four minutes to go Spearman started to cut the pace drastically, but didn't ever go into a stall full. In the final four minutes Spearman took only two shots from the floor, missing both, and tallied their final three points at the foul line. Rivercrest in this same period was held scoreless, getting off only three shots and missing them all.

Angleton 50, Carthage 38

The Angleton-Carthage contest was a battle for one half as Angleton led by only 11-9 and 23-21 at the end of the first two quarters and then Angleton ran the score to 29-21 and never looked back.

Angleton got dead-eye shooting from Freda Schweinle from the floor and from Lynne Bergen at the line, each scoring 16 points. Gloria Ford did a fine job as guard as she grabbed 12 rebounds.

Sharon Langley led Carthage with 23 points.

Canyon 50, Tuloso-Midway (Corpus Christi) 46

The Canyon-Tuloso-Midway contest was tied seven times and the lead changed seven times and the widest advantage by either team was five points.

Canyon took the lead for good at 36-35 late in the third quarter on a free throw by Pam Richardson and quickly moved out to a 40-35 three-quarter lead.

Canyon's Jenna Thompson provided the final two plays that chilled the Gulf Coast girls' last hopes. She stole a pass with 1:01 left to protect 49-46 lead and when high-scoring Carol Ammerman of Tuloso-Midway missed a shot with 15 seconds left, she grabbed the rebound. Miss Ammerman tallied 21 points to lead Tuloso-Midway while Miss Richardson and Jan Sternberg each tallied 16 apiece for the high-point honours for Canyon.

Deport 49, Trent 41

Deport edged Trent, 49-41, for the Class B third place in a contest that saw the lead change hands 10 times and the game tied seven times. Tied 24 all at the half, Deport outscored Trent 25-17 in the second half.

Marilyn Glover's 22 points led deport while Cresta Sipe had 15 for Trent. Deport hit 48.6 per cent of its field goals compared to only 35.7 for Trent. Rebounds were even at 29 each.

Fannindel (Ladonia) 48, Lexington 37

In the Class A third place game, Fannindel downed Lexington 48-37. Fannindel, finishing up the year with a 23-10 record, was paced by Betty Mills 30 points while Lexington, finishing with a 31-6 record, was led by Vivian Roberson's 27 points.

Calallen 57, Rivercrest (Talco-Bogata) 50

Calallen defeated Rivercrest of Talco-Bogata 57-50, in the game that decided third place in Class AA. Calallen, winding up with a 27-6 record, got 29 points from Debby Lawrence and 20 points from Sandra Hardin. Joan Walesiak led the Rivercrest crew with 27 points as they finished a 29-8 season.

Tuloso-Midway (Corpus Christi) 59, Carthage 39

In the Class AAA third place game, Tuloso-Midway crushed Carthage 59-39.

Tuloso-Midway, owner of a 38-1 final record, got 30 points from Carol Ammerman and 20 points from Martha Gray. Carthage finished the year with a 33-4 season, while they were paced by Sharon Langley's 25 points in the final game.

Klondike (Lamesa) 62, High Island 48

For Klondike of Lamesa the second time was the charm as they defeated defending champion High Island, 62-48, in the Class B title game.

It was Klondike's second appearance in the State Meet and when the Cougerettes made their first trip last year they worked their way into the finals only to lose to High Island 53-40.

High Island, making its fourth consecutive appearance in the State Meet, was aiming at its third consecutive title.

Though the score was tied four times and the lead changed hands twice, Klondike was never in trouble after the midway point in the first quarter.

Klondike's Marguerite Minter and Joyce Wilcher each had 27 points and scored consistently throughout the contest. Miss Minter, an all-tournament selection last year, put on a 12-point burst in the fourth quarter to put the game completely out of reach.

Stratford 47, Deweyville 37

After a heads-up first quarter battle, the Stratford Elkettes were able to maintain their consistency while the Deweyville Pirates couldn't and Stratford marched on to claim the Class A championship, 42-37. Deweyville trailed by 7 points at the end of the third quarter, but rallied in the final period to cut the Elkettes margin to 1 point with 2:40 left in the game. Still the Pirates could not catch up or take-over the lead.

With 19 seconds left on the clock, Stratford's Rene Knight dropped in two free shots on a one-and-one situation to put the tally at the final count and the game on ice.

Miss Knight was the top scorer for Stratford and she bucketed 24 points. Kathy Allen was the leading scorer for the Elkettes coming into the championship game though she tallied only 13 in the final contest.

Charlotte Bickman was the only strength Deweyville could muster as she hit for 25 points.

Midway (Waco) 56, Spearman 55

Sophomore Jane McKethan of Midway's trio of red-hot shooters, calmly dropped in two free throws with no time remaining to ice away the Class AA championship game over Spearman, 56-55.

She hit a layup at the buzzer but it was disallowed because she was fouled before getting the shot off. Then with her team on the short end of the count, she dropped in the two charity shots and won the game for Midway.

Rene Wilson was the top scorer for Midway as she dropped in 27 points. Sharon McKethan sank 15 points, just one ahead of Jane McKethan's 14 points.

Spearman led until Sharon McKethan hit a layup that knotted the score at 25-25 to open the second half. After that the lead changed hands five times and the score was tied on 13 occasions.

Canyon 59, Angleton 42

The Canyon Eagles overwhelmed the Angleton Wildcats, 59-42, in the Class AAA championship game.

Canyon senior Pam Richardson lead the Eagles with 26 points while three other teammates hit in double figures also.

The Eagles trailed only once and the score was tied three times before Miss Richardson put the Eagles ahead to stay 6-5 on a free throw.

The first half was hotly contested as Canyon led by only three points at the end of the first period and 23-20 at the half. Angleton still trailed by only three points deep in the third quarter, but Miss Richardson and Linda Lehman sank two quick buckets to send Canyon into the final period with a 38-31 lead.
