

MEMORANDUM

To: UIL High School Academic Coordinators and Coaches
From: Dr. David Stevens, UIL Director of Academics
Re: 2022-2023 Academic Coordinator Information
Date: August 2022

The UIL academic staff looks forward to working with you in the year ahead. Please check our website for current information and forms, but feel free to contact us when you have questions or need assistance. Below is information that will help get the year started.

ACADEMIC COORDINATOR, COACHES AND DIRECTOR REGISTRATION

Registration must be completed each year for individuals to receive important updates. Please register no later than October 1.

Each high school campus coordinator should complete the academic coordinator registration for your campus. The link is on the right-hand side of the page. Please note that schools are listed by city, then school. This registration includes space for you to list contact emails for each event coach. If you do not have that information, please leave it blank for now.

The annual speech coach registration form should be completed by each coach of speaking events at the beginning of each school year. Please register no later than October 1.

Theatre directors will register during the one-act play enrollment process, due October 1.

For elementary and middle school academic coordinator registration, dates and deadlines, visit the A+ Academics section of the UIL website.

COORDINATOR'S MANUAL and EVENT HANDBOOKS

The Academic Coordinator's Manual, updated annually, can be downloaded from the Handbooks and Manuals webpage. This site also includes resource guides and handbooks for each academic event with contest rules and procedures intended for contest directors, coaches and contestants.

STUDY MATERIALS

UIL provides resources and study manuals, which may be ordered from the UIL Online Store. Most study packets are available in digital format only. You may pay by credit card, or your shopping cart can be saved, printed, and sent to your business office for PO or payment. Once payment is received, you will be emailed the links to download the materials and hard copies will be shipped for those items not available electronically.

RULES COMPLIANCE, SAFETY, OR CPR

The online Rules Compliance Program, Safety Training and CPR training are not a UIL requirement for academic coaches or coordinators. Your school district may have requirements beyond what is required by UIL. UIL Academics does not utilize the RMA (Register My Athlete) online program.

STUDENT ACTIVITIES CONFERENCES

This year's schedule includes four in-person sessions offering contest information, instruction and tips to help coaches and students prepare for the 2022 competition season. Sessions will be scheduled for all UIL academic contest areas.

- September 10 – Tyler Junior College, Tyler
- October 1 – Texas Tech University, Lubbock
- October 29 – University of Texas, Austin
- November 5 – University of Texas Rio Grande Valley, Edinburg

Please check the Student Activities Conference webpage often for details. A full program of events at each site will be posted and updated approximately two weeks before the conference.

UPDATED INFORMATION ON THE WEBSITE

- Topics and required readings are posted for Social Studies and Literary Criticism.
- Word Power can be downloaded from the Spelling and Vocabulary webpage.
- The current approved Science calculator list and Physics study text are posted, along with updated notes from Science contest directors on the Science webpage.
- Handbooks and manuals for academic contests are updated and posted.

INVITATIONAL MEETS

Arrange to attend UIL invitational tournaments or practice meets before the district contest. A list of meets is posted on the Academic Invitational Meets and Tournament webpage and is updated as sites inform UIL they are hosting a meet.

ACADEMIC DISTRICT MEETS

Planning meetings with all coordinators, Speech coaches and One-Act Play directors should be scheduled or have already taken place to make recommendations to the District Executive Committee for dates and locations for this year's district meets. The list of District Meet Directors is updated as we receive information. UIL will not officially know the date of your meet until February 1 or when the meet is set up in the online entry system by the meet director.

ACADEMIC REGIONAL SITES

Handbooks and information from the Regional Academic and Speech Meet hosts will be posted on the Region Meets site, when available.

ACADEMIC STATE MEET

Information for the Academic State Meet will be posted when available. NOTE: The Academic and Speech State Meets will be held May 17-18, 2023.

IMPORTANT ACADEMIC DEADLINES 2022-23

THIS LIST IS TENTATIVE AND SUBJECT TO CHANGE.

Please check the official UIL calendar on the UIL website for the most updated information for deadlines and contest dates.

NOTE:

Deadline for all contestant entries in academic events is no later than 10 calendar days before day of meet unless otherwise designated.

★ They're free! No pre-registration needed!

★ The Conferences begin at 9 a.m. and end by 1:30 p.m. without a lunch break. This allows us greater flexibility in scheduling without sacrificing program quality, and allows schools to return home earlier. Bring along snacks for students who need a sugar or carbo boost around noon.

★ Conferences are scheduled as best as possible to minimize conflicts with national testing dates, band contests and state conventions and to maximize participation by the finest students and teachers in Texas. Pre-registration is not required and there is no fee for attendance.

★ Instructional Sessions are designed for beginning students, advanced students and academic coordinators and coaches. Lectures and demonstrations will be scheduled for all UIL academic contests, including One-Act Play.

★ Conferences feature lectures and presentations by UIL contest directors, college professors and high school teachers. Sessions will include discussions on contest preparation, demonstrations, performances and contest administration. Students may choose from novice and advanced sessions in some academic areas, as well as small-group sessions in specific UIL activities.

★ Bring students! Most sessions are intended to help students begin preparing for high school spring contests. Mark your calendar and plan to attend one or more!

★ Programs for each site will be posted on the UIL website for you to print ahead of time or view online during event. Printed programs will not be available at sites.

A+ One Act Play

High School OAP

- ★ The One-Act Play Contest, founded in 1927, is the largest high school play production contest or play festival in the world. It is considered by historians to be the foundation of educational and community theatre in Texas.
- ★ The Young Filmmakers Festival is to provide students with the opportunity to explore the art of cinematic storytelling. Films focus on storytelling using the techniques and tools found in the cinematic arts.
- ★ The Theatrical Design Contest fosters appreciation of good theatrical design. In the Theatrical Design Contest, schools submit designs which are adjudicated and rated and advancing schools are announced.
- ★ Participation in the Student Activity Conferences are encouraged for students with an interest in these events.
- ★ Instructional Sessions in Theatre, Film and Theatrical Design are designed for beginning student, advanced students, theatre directors and sponsors.
- ★ Programs for each site will be posted on the UIL website for you to print ahead of time or view online during event.

Welcome to the official scholastic press association for student journalists in the state of Texas.

This organization offers a wealth of resources and opportunities for your scholastic media program – for both high school and middle school. From contests and critiques to conventions to workshops, ILPC has it all for you and your students to share the work you do in your yearbook, newspaper, broadcast and online news staffs and share it with other student journalists in the state.

We encourage you to join, enter the competitions, attend the convention and participate in the summer workshop. Joining is simple and quick and can transform your students' scholastic journalism experience.

If you are new to scholastic journalism or have questions about ILPC, contact Alyssa Boehringer at aboehringer@uiltexas.org.

The ILPC Spring Convention and Summer Workshop provide opportunities for students to get hands-on experience with advisers and professionals as they hone their journalism skills and have a blast.

ONLINE RESOURCES, CONTESTS & CRITIQUES

ILPC offers critiques for newspapers (both print and online), yearbooks and broadcast programs. Our experienced judges will give you critical feedback for your programs so you can continue to move your students forward. We also have Individual Achievement Award (IAA) contests for each medium. We have dozens of categories for individual students to compete. The categories range from writing to photography to design, video and online. We even have a rookie IAA category for schools that have not participated in ILPC for the past three years.

All winners from our IAA contests are announced at the ILPC Spring Convention. Additionally, we have a leadership contest for the editors and producers of your programs and a contest just for advisers.

The deadline for the yearbook contest is Dec. 1. The deadline for newspaper and broadcasts contests is Feb. 15.

SPRING CONVENTION APRIL 14-16, 2023

Each spring, ILPC hosts a convention where we announce winners from our contests and offer more than 75 break-out sessions for students and advisers.

Our presenters range from Pulitzer-Prize winning photographers to award-winning advisers to college professors. Our presentations cover a plethora of topics relating to all forms of media – from “What Skills you Need in the Real World” to “How to Improve Your Feature Leads.”

The two-day event is held in April and is a great way to end your school year and prepare future leaders for what's to come. In addition to the speakers and award presentations, ILPC also offers an on-site contest for students who want one more competition.

The convention is held on the University of Texas campus.

Come join the fun and go home ready to finish the year strong.

SUMMER WORKSHOP JUNE 16-18, 2023

Since 1980, ILPC summer publications workshops have set the standards for excellence. Our reputation as a workshop that stresses “work” is unequalled, and staffs that are serious about producing high-quality media return each year. For three days, students and advisers participate in an intensive learning environment, headed by many of the nation's finest journalism instructors. These instructors are dedicated to one goal: helping others create the finest school newspapers and yearbooks possible. Students and advisers alike return to school in August ready to tackle their jobs, whether they're beginning reporters or veteran advisers.

We offer classes in social media, video, various newspaper and yearbook strands, photography and design. Students reside in UT dorms and experience the university – cafeteria food and all.
