LATINO HISTORY ESSAY COMPETITION

2024 ENTRY INSTRUCTIONS

Theme – Historical and cultural legacies of Latinos in Texas history

Choosing Your Topic

- Select a topic that clearly fits the theme of the competition. Entries that do not address the theme will not be accepted.
- In considering topics, look to your community first. Talk to parents, grandparents, aunts, uncles, family friends, teachers, clergy and other members of your local community.
 - The contributions of the person you write about must be far reaching and extend outside of your immediate family and friends.
- Refer to the UIL website for additional suggestions and guidelines:
www.uiltexas.org/academics/essay-contests.

Writing Your Essay

- You may receive help and advice from teachers and parents on conducting original research and on the technical aspects of your essay (e.g. typing and formatting).
- Essays must be between 1,500 and 2,500 words in length and must be the work of only one student.
- All work must be the entrant's own. Plagiarism is unacceptable and will result in disqualification.
- Essays should display original research. A focus on interviews and primary source materials is strongly encouraged. Valid historical research can rarely be done using only Internet resources.
- Essays must be written in research paper format using either MLA or APA guidelines. Refer to the UIL website for links to additional information.
- Source citations and a complete bibliography are required. Entries that do not include source citations or a bibliography will not be accepted.
- There is no need to include your name or your school name on your essay.

Submitting Your Entry

- The entry deadline is February 14, 2024. Entries received after the deadline will not be accepted.
- Any student in grades 9-12 who attends a UIL member high school may enter. A student may submit one entry per school year.
- A completed entry form must be included. Essays without an entry form will not be accepted.
- All entries must be submitted through the UIL website. You may find the link to submit your entry on the Latino History Essay Competition webpage.
- PDF is the preferred file format for submitting entries. Microsoft Word format is also acceptable.

The Judging Process

- Entries that meet the requirements listed above will be entered in the judging process.
- A judge comment form will be returned to each entrant, along with a certificate of participation.
- Judges will be asked to nominate their best essays for consideration as state finalists. A selection committee will select state finalists from the nominated essays.

Awards

- All state finalists will be considered for state awards, and will be invited to attend the awards presentation at the Academic State Meet in May.
- All state finalists will be eligible to apply for Texas Interscholastic League Foundation scholarships (www.tilfoundation.org).
