

photo essay

Winter Is Just Around the Corner

In anticipation of the Holiday Break, sophomore Harper Lay looked back on the photographs she captured during her many holiday vacations in Steamboat Springs, Colorado.

- 1. Lay captured a photograph of the Steamboat Ski instructors skiing down the mountain while carrying torches.
- 2, 3, 4. Taking breaks between ski runs, Lay took photographs of the surrounding pine and aspen trees.
- 5. Steamboat's winter streetlights contrast with the fresh winter snow.

To check out more of Lay's work, visit hockadayfourcast.org or scan the QR code.

