

TTAO Oath of Ethics & Professional Standards

I, as the undersigned Adjudicator and/or Contest Manager, affirm to know and uphold all rules for one-act play competition as stated in the current editions of the UIL Constitution and Contest Rules and current edition of the The Handbook for One-Act Play published by the University Interscholastic League. I have reviewed all updates for the 2023-2024 contest year including affirmation that:

- I will abide by the UIL rubric for One-Act Play, including compliance with the 60/40 distribution of acting and technical elements for evaluating plays.
- I will read all plays and materials submitted to me for contests
- I will score all plays without partiality
- I will confirm there is no conflict of interest in my participation in assigned contests and/or clinics/festivals

I have reviewed my ethical and professional obligations located on the TTAO Code of Ethics and Professional Standards website. I acknowledge that failure to comply with the TTAO Code of Ethics and Professional Conduct will be considered an ethics violation and may result in a range of penalties including suspension or removal from TTAO.
