AUSTIN, June 4 -- Fort Worth Castleberry waxed Dumas, 12-2, in a Conference AAA semi-final baseball game here Tuesday afternoon. The game was called after 4 1/2 innings because of the Interscholastic League's 10-run rule.

Joe Robertson, who allowed one hit over the last 3 1/3 innings, was the winning pitcher. Joe Ballard, second of three Dumas pitchers, was the loser.

Castleberry, in its first trip to the tourney, has advanced to the finals and will play perennial (1958, 1959, 1961) champ South San Antonio Wednesday at 7 p.m. for the AAA title. South San beat Jasper, 1-0, earlier Tuesday.

Castleberry right fielder Bobby Franks had four RBI to lead the Lions, who scored five times each in the third and fourth innings.
