AUSTIN, Texas, June 18--Deer Park erupted for seven runs in the fourth inning and went on to win the Class AAA consolation championship of the state high school baseball meet Thursday with an abbreviated 10-0 win over Mount Pleasant.

The game ended with two outs in the sixth inning when the winners scored their 10th run of the game. Under University Interscholastic League rules the 10-run game prevails.

Mike Wood went the distance for Deer Park blanking the Tigers on one hit. He struck out four.

Roy Whitley and Tom Madden each drove in two runs in the wild fourth inning that chased starter Gary Barnett.
