AUSTIN, March 3 — Hutto's Hippos, in their second trip to the state boys' basketball tournament, earned their way to the Class B championship game as they turned back Aspermont, 54-46, here Friday morning.

Dan Peterson scored 25 points to lead the Hutto victory. The Hippos will play either Mauriceville or Frankston for the Class B championship Saturday at 1:05 p.m.

John Godfrey, with 13 points, and Gary Gardner, with 12, led losing Aspermont. It was Gardner who hit an 18-foot jump shot in the last four seconds to give Aspermont a 54-52 win over Mertzon in the opening round Thursday.

Aspermont will play for third place in Class B Friday at 6:45 p.m.
