A U S T I N , March 4 --- Off to a dreadful start, Port Acres rallied sharply here Thursday afternoon to gun down Phillips, 64-51, in a state tournament Class AA upset.

The Eagles were several times down by 10 points in the second period. But then a comeback led by Gerald Babineaux pulled Port Acres to ~~within~~ ^{within} a 25-25 tie at halftime.

Clif Carlin took over from there to score 15 of his 19 total points in the second half and park the Eagles to the victory. Carlin scored nine of his points during Port Acres' ²¹~~22~~-point outburst in the third period that won it.

Port Acres hit 50% from the field, Poillips only 37.7.

Carlin was high for the Eagles, but yielded game high honors to Phillips' Larry Lewis, who fouled out late in the game.
