Del Valle	16	20	13	20-69

Officials: Jeter and Graeber

Turnovers: Ft. Worth Como 25 Del Valle 9

With a devastating fast break Ft. Worth Como Lions held off repeated rallies of the Del Valle Cardinals and hung on to a 74-69 victory. James Cook led the way with his 28 rebounds controlling the boards and 20 points. Cook was also a big factor in blocking numerous Cardinals shots and generally intimidating the shorter Cardinals.

The Cardinals refused to give up, rallying numerous times behind the shooting of Joe Kocurek (18pts) and George Arnold (25pts). The Del Valle press while forcing turnovers on occasion, was unable to consistently throw down the running Lions. Once ahead the Lions were able to control the tempo of the game and go into a semi-stall which seemed to disrupt the Cardinal game plan.
