AUSTIN, Tex., Mar. 16--Roosevelt held off North Hopkins valiant try in the fourth quarter and moved on to ~~win~~ gain a 61-52 win and thereby move into the finals of Conference B in the seventh annual girls state championship basketball tournament here Saturday morning.

North Hopkins moved to within one point with four minutes to go in the game but high scoring Gloria Gammill finished strong by hitting 10 straight points and giving Roosevelt its advantage. Gammill led the game's scoring with 33 points followed by North Hopkins' Lou Jane Jones with 22.

Roosevelt led all the way holding a 21-10 lead at the end of the first quarter and 36-23 at the intermission. North Hopkins came back strong in the third quarter and cut the Roosevelt lead to 48-41. North Hopkins continued to whittle away at the Eagles margin when little Jones closed ~~the~~ the ~~game~~ lead to one point, 51-50 with a free toss. It was then that Gammill put on her scoring spree.
