

GAME NO. 2
State Schoolgirls Basketball Tournament
Class A--First Round
Central (Pollok) 54, Sugarland 50

A U S T I N, March 12--Pollok's Central High School survived a 37-point scoring performance by Sugarland's Joyce Binford to beat the Gators, 54-50, and earn a ~~new~~ spot in Saturday's Class A finals of the state girls basketball tournament.

Central will meet Sudan, which beat Clyds, 60-46, earlier ~~Saturday~~ Thursday, in the Saturday 2:55 p.m. finals.

Joyce Binford, the tourney's outstanding player through its first two games, scored 28 of her final point total in the first half to get Sugarland a 33-29 intermission lead. Central held her to eight points in the first 12 minutes of the second half and she fouled ^e out with four minutes to play to make ^{the} ~~her~~ job easier. Central took control when Joyce Binford fouled out and was never behind again.

Barbara Young and Janis Sifford were the winner's scoring leaders with 21 and 21 points respectively.
