A U S T I N , March 9 --- Moulton hit six straight free throws in the last two minutes here Thursday night to edge Boyd, 47-43, in a Class A semi-final game that opened the 11th annual Interscholastic League girls' basketball tournament.

Georgie Luksovsky hit four of the charity shots to pull the winners from a 41-43 deficit, then teammate Georgia Haas hit the clinching pair with just six seconds left.

Eileen Raabe of Moulton was the top scorer, with 19 points. Haas had 15 and Luksovsky 13, as the Bobkittens played without substituting.

Boyd, ahead 23-20 at the half, was led by the 15 points of Naomi McSpadden.

The victory puts Moulton in the Class A finals Saturday at 2:55 p.m., while Boyd will play for third place Friday at 4:35 p.m.
