

2020-2021 SPOT ANNOUNCEMENTS

To be used during University Interscholastic League Activities

Spot announcements may be used prior, during and following games.

COVID-19 MITIGATION SPOT ANNOUNCEMENTS:

- We hope you will enjoy today's game and help to support your school and community by practicing proper social distancing measures. Remember to keep at least six feet distance between you and others outside your household. Together we can slow the spread of COVID-19.
- We would like to take a moment to thank the coaches, directors, teachers, school administrators and staff for their dedication to our student athletes during this uncertain time. It is through their leadership this game was made possible. Show your respect for them and the student athletes by following all recommended COVID-19 guidelines.
- Please remember to protect yourself and others by wearing a face covering at all times unless consuming food or drink. Wearing a face covering in public settings is proven to be one of the most effective ways to slow the spread of COVID-19. Face coverings help you to not jeopardize the health of the student athletes participating in the game and others in the community.

OTHER SPOT ANNOUNCEMENTS:

- We are pleased to welcome you today to (SCHOOL NAME). Good sportsmanship is one of the primary purposes of educational athletics. Our student - athletes recognize that judgment calls –by officials, coaches and themselves – are made in good faith and should be respected. Spectators can support both of these teams by refraining from derogatory or demeaning comments and cheers today. We hope that you will enjoy the game and support the students in a positive and sportsmanlike manner.
- Sportsmanship is a vital part of athletics. The University Interscholastic League and its member schools are dedicated to promoting sportsmanship around the state. During the contest, if you see someone using poor behavior please notify facility personnel. (SCHOOL NAME) believes sportsmanship is of utmost importance and wants you to enjoy the contest in a fun and healthy environment. Thank you for your cooperation.
- Athletics is not the only area of competition sponsored by the University Interscholastic League. The UIL sponsors more than 70 events in the areas of Music, Academics and Athletics.

- The University Interscholastic League, which is sponsoring this event, is a voluntary educational association through which more than 1,300 high schools of Texas work cooperatively. The schools themselves adopt the standards and regulations of this event.
- Athletic officials are seldom given the appreciation they deserve. They are given the responsibility and authority to enforce the Rules of the Game. The schools involved select officials and both schools must agree to accept the officials prior to the start of the game.
- Opponents are guests and should be treated accordingly by providing the best accommodations and tolerance at all times. Showing respect for opponents is not only appropriate, but will positively reflect on your school, team and community.
- Coaches and directors of school activities are among the best trained leaders for students. They are teachers with special abilities and training for this responsibility. Their efforts contribute to the complete education of students.
- Interscholastic activities provide educational experiences for students. With a well-run school program, students and spectators become better citizens through participation in activities conducted under established rules that are equally administered.
- Let us remember that this contest is for the recreational and educational benefits of high school students. One team will win and the other will lose, But the experiences should be beneficial to all.
- An interscholastic athletic program, which is properly planned and administered, is an asset to a community. It provides educational values and wholesome activities for all high school students as either participants or spectators.
- An athlete is taught respect for teammates, coaches, officials and opponents. Through developing self-discipline, this can be done whether the game is won or lost. This is one of the most important lessons, which helps make a more mature citizen.
- Student athletes represent their teams, fellow students, teachers and school community. Athletes are expected to be individuals who will make a good impression for their schools.
- Taking responsibility is one of the essential qualities of good sportsmanship. It is always very important that you conduct yourself with pride and take responsibility for yourself and your school.

- A person's ethics can be seen by the way they react when faced with situations that call their integrity and judgment into account. Displaying a high level of ethical behavior is essential when participating in UIL athletics. Whether you are a player, coach, fan, official or administrator it is your responsibility to always conduct yourself in an ethical manner that will help promote the goals of educational athletics.
- (SCHOOL NAME) would like to thank you for attending tonight's contest and wish you a safe trip home. Remember that sportsmanship is always important and should be practiced before, during and after the game. Our students are very important, and with your help we can all teach them the lesson of proper sportsmanship.
- As you leave the facility, please remember that all participants involved in tonight's contest gave their very best effort. Please help show your support of these fine student athletes by acting in a sportsmanlike manner.
